

Book Evaluation — Editorial - Poetry

PLEASE POST your scores and comments online. A link to the online judging form will be sent to you by e-mail. Please use these paper forms as worksheets and keep them as backup should you need to send them to IBPA. Please focus on the editorial elements only. There is a separate design judge for this category, please focus on editorial only.

Evaluate the editorial treatment objectively, whether or not you agree with the author’s point of view or style of expression or idiom. Observations and suggestions should be provided on the back of this form and transferred online so entrants understand why they are receiving the scores they receive. Score your responses on a scale of 10 to 1 in which 10=perfect, 9=very good, 8=good, 7=significantly above average, 6=above average, 5=average, 4=below average, 3=significantly below average, 2=poor, 1=very poor. Please consider each topic independently and offer an appropriate score and comments for that topic. It is important to offer appropriate scores on each topic so IBPA is able to determine the overall winners and so entrants can work to improve future editions of their books.

Please provide a 100-500 word written critique of this book: Observations and suggestions should be typed below and transferred online so entrants understand why they are receiving the scores they receive and so they can improve future editions of their books. Please write in complete sentences – we will be returning the information you transfer online to the publishers and authors - verbatim. Please also let them know what they are doing well and where they can improve. Here is a note from one of your fellow judges that explains nicely how to provide constructive criticism for books you may not enjoy as much as the others: “There are compassionate ways to deliver constructive criticism. Comments should encourage, and support growth, in the true spirit of teaching, even while delivering difficult observations.”
